A big Chaucer welcome to our Chaucer Family to: Dante Manaaki

From the Principal

Kia ora koutou, talofa lava, As-Salaam-Alaikum, malo e lelei, kia orana, fakaalofa lahi atu, bula vinaka, namaste, greetings to you all.

"And in the flash of an eye, the production is done and dusted."

I could not be more proud of the entire student body for their wonderful performances and hard work throughout Term 4. It was absolutely heart-warming to witness students come together, work as a team and present such polished performances. The support shown to one another across all year levels, especially during our rehearsal day, was just beautiful to see; the true Chaucer spirit at its best!

Special thanks to Mr Shane Akauola, our Performing Arts teacher who worked tirelessly with your fabulous children.

Also, thank you for your koha/donation which will go towards a stage. We raised $438.

Have a fabulous Christmas and a wonderful New Year!

Carmen Lafaele

Christmas Production

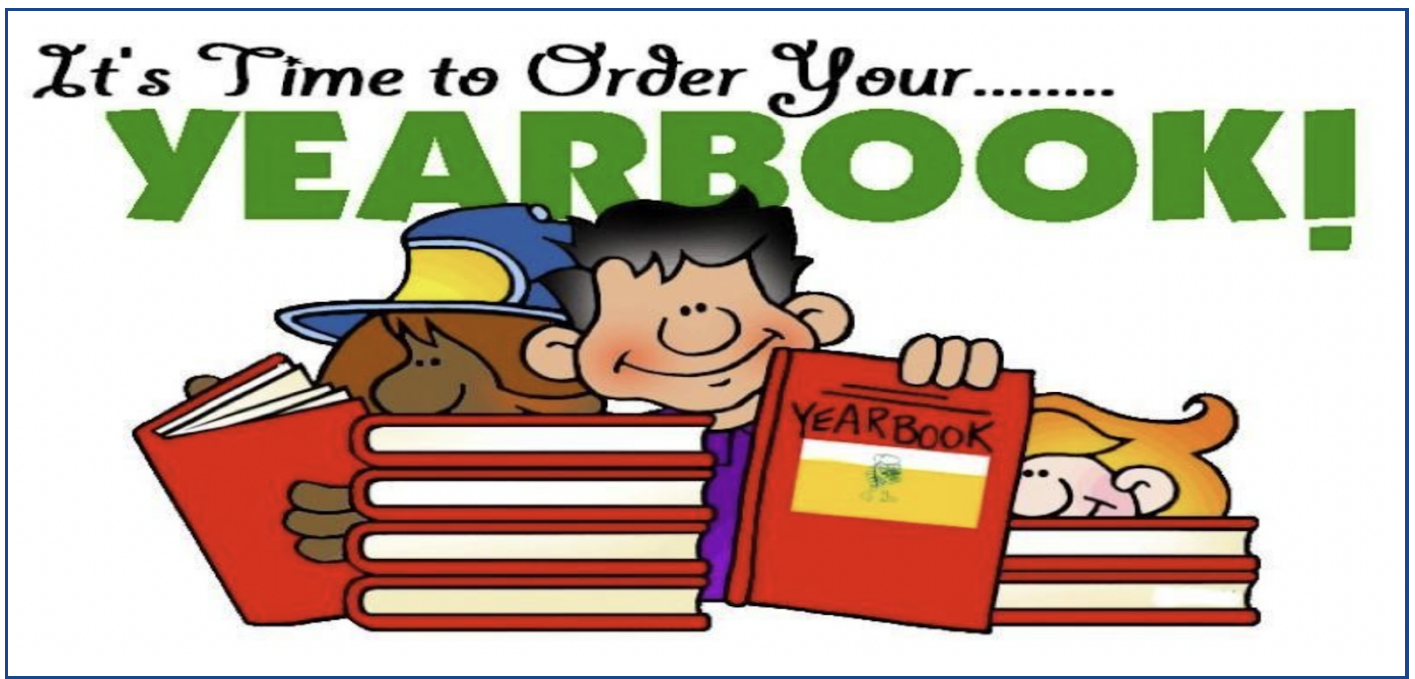

BIKES IN SCHOOLS - BIKE AND PUMP TRACK PROJECT

We are in the process of fundraising for a bike and pump track for our school. We need $120 000. Auckland Transport has secured $60,000 of the Waka Kotahi NZTA's BikeReady funding towards our Bikes in Schools project. If anyone knows of trusts or companies who wish to donate to our school, we would appreciate your help. Our school and community will benefit from having a bike and pump track.

YEARBOOK

Yearbooks are an incredible investment and become more valuable with each passing year. They capture faces that inevitably change, memories frozen in time, and moments you might not remember otherwise. Make sure you order your copy of the 2022 yearbook from the office.....only $10...you don't want to miss out!! Friday 9th Dec is the last day you can order your yearbook.

From the Office

Hats - Thank you all for supporting and encouraging children to wear their hats this term. Sunscreen and sun protection are very important for children. Sunscreen is available in all classrooms.
Many thanks!
