From the Deputy Principal

Hi team,

Can you believe we've already made it past the halfway mark of the term? Time flies when you're having fun (or just trying to remember where you left your coffee mug).

First off, a massive shout-out to Room 10 for their wonderful assembly last week! It takes an immense amount of courage and bravery to stand up and perform in front of the whole school, and we truly commend them for stepping up. Their creativity and talent were absolutely brilliant, and the energy in the room was infectious. Well done.

Farewell & Congratulations!

We also have a couple of bittersweet goodbyes to say. For the past eight weeks, we've been incredibly lucky to have two wonderful student teachers with us: Dina Djunaedi and Maddie Reynolds. They have done an absolutely superb job, bringing so much energy to our classrooms, and I'm thrilled to share that they both passed their Practicum with flying colours! We are so proud of them and wish them nothing but the absolute best as they kick off their teaching careers. If you see them around before they head off, please join me in giving them a huge thank you.

A few quick, friendly reminders as we head into the next couple of weeks:

- The Weather is Turning: Please make sure the kids are coming to school with their warm black raincoats. Standard school dress code applies, no coloured skivvies under shirts, grey only. Staying warm and dry is the priority!

- Pick-up Zone Safety: Let's all take a deep breath and slow down a bit in the car park during those crazy after school rushes. Please, safety first.

As always, my door is open if you ever want to pop in for a chat or share an idea or catch me before or after school as I wander by the playground. Thank you all for making this such a supportive, vibrant community to be a part of.

Have a fantastic, restful weekend, everyone!

*Noho ora mai - stay well,
Carmen Lafaele
Deputy Principal*
